

Four raw filet mignon steaks are arranged on a wooden cutting board. Each steak is tied with a sprig of fresh rosemary. The steaks are arranged in two rows of two. The top-left steak is tied with a white string. The bottom-left steak is also tied with a white string. The bottom-right steak is tied with a white string. The steaks are a vibrant red color with visible white marbling. The cutting board is a light brown wood with a natural grain. The background is a dark, textured surface.

FILET MIGNON